

Islam Studies

(HS-101)

Rahmatullah Shaikh
Lecturer (Islamic Studies)

Introduction to the Course

- Compulsory Subject
- 2CH (Credit Hours/Contact Hours)
- Total Marks: 100

The Course CLOs

- CLO-1. Explain the significance of basic beliefs and Pillars of Islam, their effects on an individual life and society.
- CLO-2. Enhance understanding of Quran, Hadith and life of our Holy Prophet ﷺ as the source of inspiration and guidance.
- CLO-3. Introduce Islam as a complete code of life and to analyze the emerging challenges of Ummah and their possible solutions in the light of Islamic Teachings.

Reference Books

- Sirat-e-Mustqem by Aabdul Qayyum Natiq
- Islamic Studies for degree classes by Muneeb-ur-Rehman
- Islamic Studies by Kareem Dad Chugtai

Class Ethics

- Punctuality (Attendance)
- Respect your teachers and colleagues
- Do not speak during the lecture
- Be concentrative and attentive
- Ethics for asking questions

The Course Contents

- Introduction to Islam
 - Its meaning and importance as a Deen
 - Peculiarities of Islam
- Basic Beliefs of Islam
 - Articles of Faith
- Excellence of Holy Quran
 - Introduction to Quran
 - Quran and Science

Conti...

- Collection and Compilation of Holy Quran
 - Compilation Periods
- Life of Holy Prophet ﷺ
 - Main Events from Prophet's life
- Islamic culture and civilization
 - Its Characteristics

Conti...

- Islamic Code of Life
 - Political system of Islam
 - Economic system of Islam
- Pillars of Islam
 - Arkan-e-Islam
- Selected verses of Holy Quran
 - Al-Hujrat (1-13)
 - Al-Furqan (63-77)

Conti...

- Introduction to Sunnah
 - Kinds of Hadith
 - Few selected Ahdith
- Ethical values of Islamic Society
 - Rights
- Islam and The Modern World
 - Misconception about Islam
 - Muslim world and contemporary issues